Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 1600 on Tuesday 06 Jul 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Northeast cloudy, showery rain Wednesday. Heavy showers southeast. West drier.

This Evening and Tonight:
Mostly cloudy with outbreaks of rain over north and east Scotland. Some heavier outbreaks at first becoming light, patchy by morning. Drier with clear interludes in the west.

Wednesday:
Northeast Scotland mainly cloudy with some showery rain. Patchy haar far northeast. Some afternoon thunderstorms in southeast. The west mainly dry with some sunshine.

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
A drier few days with some warm sunshine breaking through and just a few showers, though heavier on Saturday. Occasional mist and low cloud near North Sea coasts. Light winds.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.